you feel the good that's done by Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cleanses, regulates and invigorates Stomach, Liver and Bowels and so purifies the blood. And through the blood, it cleanses, repairs, and invigorates the whole system.

In recovering from "grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other exhausting diseases, nothing can equal it as an appetizing, restorative tonic to build up needed flesh and strength. It rouses every organ into natural action, promotes all the bodily functions, and restores health and vigor.

For every disease that comes from foul or Weak Stomach, a torpid Liver or impure Blood, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, and the most stubborn Skin, Scalp, or Scrofulous affections, the "Discovery" is a sovereign remedy. Don't be hypnotized, wheedled, or over persuaded into accepting a substitute only that some selfish medicine seller may make a greater profit on the inferior article. The "Discovery" has a great record of nearly forty years with thousands of cures behind it.

Dear Sir—Several years ago my blood became impoverished and I became run down in health. I had no appetite, could not sleep, and was practically unfitted for work. Suffered from innumerable boils and was in bad shape. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery relieved me of my wretched condition. The medicine built up my system and restored me to a normal condition of health. I can speak most highly also, of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as it has been used in my family for years in cases of female trouble.

CONDITIONS IN RUSSIA.

Order appears to have been quite generally restored in Russia, the exception being in Poland. Even in Warsaw, however, there has been a return to conditions approximating the normal.

The committee of ministers, sitting at St. Petersburg, has formulated and the emperor has sanctioned a number of proposals looking toward the establishment of the Senate upon a basis of closer connection with the throne; doing away with the administrative orders, suspending certain laws, and in other ways checking the evils that have arisen through the arbitrary acts of ministers of officials.

The report that Maxim Gorky has been released is difficult of verification It the rumor is true the author has probably been requested to leave St. Petersburg immediately.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says that the wave of labor troubles has now spread over all of Russian Poland, and also in Caucasia. At Batoum large bodies of workmen crowd the streets and the military patrol the town.

The latest reports received by Consul General Watts from the American consuls in Russia indicate a cessation of the trouble in most of the industrial centers.

A telegram from Czestochowa, Russian Poland, says all the factories there are closed and serious disturbances are reported to have occurred. The socialists are very strong there.

The Warsaw-Vienna Railroad shops are closed. At Pruszkow yesterday 1,200 men struck. All the factories are closed at Kalisz.

The workmen in the coal and manufacturing districts of Dombrowa, Bendzin and Sosnovice have held meetings and have decided to strike today.

The factory districts in Warsaw are strongly guarded by troops. Warsaw continues in a state of siege.

During the riots of Sunday and Monday the workmen's residence district was unprotected by police, and the Hooligans seized the opportunity to plunder many dwellings. A large body of workmen yesterday went to a suburb where criminals abound and instituted a rigorous search of their houses. Wherever they were able to identify stolen property the workmen promptly killed the persons whose possession it was found. About 100 other criminals were injured in fighting with the workmen.

The latter were not only actuated by revenge for their losses, but were enraged because the Hooligan element brought discredit on the strike movement.

The pupils of many public and private schools met yesterday and decided to demand the introduction of the Polish language, or otherwise they will not return to school. This is significant as indicating the introduction of the nationalist movement into the economic agitation.

Eleven Men Perishing in the Bay.

Eleven oystermen are dying of cold and starvation on an immense marsh nearly five miles west of Deals Island, in Somerset county, Md., and about 90 miles south of Baltimore. They are the crews of eight small tonging and scraping craft that ventured in those desolate waters on Monday, January 16, since which date they have been frozen in, without provisions, water or fuel, and have undoubtedly been the victims of such horrors as proved the end of Sir John Franklin. Today is the eighteenth day of their predicament. Their fleet of boats consists of eight small canoes and skipjacks, the latter a type of boat popular in that section for the tonging and scraping of oysters. Yesterday the condition of these men became known in Baltimore through a telephone message. Mr. Charles A. Thalheimer, chief marine clerk of the custom house, took the matter before the Mayor, who submitted it to the harbor board, with the result that this morning the iceboat Annapolis, Captain Griggs, left Annapolis with stores and medical attendants to save whoever may be alive in the party. At Crisfield the Annapolis will probably take on local volunteers, and then make her way up Tangier Sound to the rescue. Other parties will probably be taken on at Deals Island, as the work of rescue will be strenuous, because there is not enough draught of water to reach the men, and they will have to be rescued by flat-bottom skiffs shoved along over the snow-covered ice waste.

Public is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach; liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

Tonic to the System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., says: "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. Dewitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by all druggists.

Tired, Nervous Mothers

Make Unhappy Homes—Their Condition Irritates Both Husband and Children—How Thousands of Mothers Have Been Saved From Nervous Prostration and Made Strong and Well.

Mrs. Chester Curry — Mrs. Chas. F. Brown

A nervous, irritable mother, often on the verge of hysterics, is unfit to care for children; it ruins a child's disposition and reacts upon herself. The trouble between children and their mothers too often is due to the fact that the mother has some female weakness, and she is entirely unfit to bear the strain upon her nerves that governing children involves; it is impossible for her to do anything calmly.

The ills of women act like a firebrand upon the nerves, consequently nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous despondency, "the blues," sleeplessness, and nervous irritability of women arise from some derangement of the female organism.

Do you experience fits of depression with restlessness, alternating with extreme irritability? Are your spirits easily affected, so that one minute you laugh, and the next minute you feel like crying?

Do you feel something like a ball rising in your throat and threatening to choke you; all the senses perverted, morbidly sensitive to light and sound; pain in the ovaries, and especially between the shoulders; bearing down pains; nervous dyspepsia, and almost continually cross and snappy?

If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition, and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for nervous prostration than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; thousands and thousands of women testify to this fact.

Mrs. Chester Curry, Leader of the Ladies' Symphony Orchestra, 42 Saratoga St., East Boston, Mass., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For eight years I was troubled with extreme nervousness and hysteria, brought on by irregularities. I could neither enjoy life nor sleep nights; I was very irritable, nervous and despondent.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and proved to be the only remedy that helped me. I have daily improved in health until I am now strong and well, and all nervousness has disappeared."

Mrs. Charles F. Brown, Vice-President of the Mothers' Club, 21 Cedar Terrace, Hot Springs, Ark., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I dragged through nine years of miserable existence, worn out with pain and nervousness, until it seemed as though I should fly. I then noticed a statement of a woman troubled as I was, and the wonderful results she derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I decided to try it. I did so, and at the end of three months I was a different woman. My nervousness was all gone, I was no longer irritable, and my husband fell in love with me all over again."

Women should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine that holds the record for the greatest number of actual cures of female ills, and take no substitute.

Free Advice to Women.

Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write to her for advice. Mrs. Pinkham's vast experience with female troubles enables her to tell you just what is best for you, and she will charge you nothing for her advice.

Phonograph Gives Evidence.

An innocent looking phonograph is to play an important part in the trial of the six men arrested Wednesday in New York by Chief Officer Graham, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, for looting freight cars of the company of goods valued at $80,000. When the prisoners were arraigned in Jersey City yesterday a phonograph was produced as one of the articles they had stolen. Judge Higgins ordered the clerk to take the machine in an anteroom and wind it up. Instead of the music the court attendants expected, they were startled to hear such words as these issue from the horn: "I made a great haul in glassware, George." "Did you? Well I had a pretty good night myself. Tapped a car for plenty of whisky and cigars." "How is it with you, Bill?" "Oh! things are coming my way; expect to turn a good trick in a day or two." In blank astonishment Judge Higgins listened to the phonograph Then he said: "If that phonograph is a competent witness, it will make one of the state's witnesses. I am not quite certain, however wh e her it can be used in evidence or not."

Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, FEB. 1905.

A DISPATCH from St. Petersburg, published in yesterday's Gazette, practically affirms what has often been observed. An intelligent workingman of the Russian capital in an interview with a correspondent made no hesitation in saying that certain persons had used the laboring classes in Russia recently for the furtherance of their own political schemes. This is but a repetition of the old story. It has been so in every country where troubles similar to those which have distracted Russia during the past few weeks have occurred. Men who neither toil nor spin are ever on the lookout to fan into a flame any grievance, real or imaginary, workingmen may have to urge. The latter have all to lose, while the agitators are mostly adventurers with nothing at stake. The Russian mechanic, like those of other countries, is opening his eyes to these facts, and is acting accordingly. The man who was interviewed by the correspondent was profuse in his estimation of the Czar. He did not find him the unthoughtful or unsympathetic iceberg which his enemies had pictured him to be. The sovereign listened attentively to all the deputation of workingmen said, acknowledged the justice of their complaints and promised to institute proceedings to bring about a more satisfactory regime, and the men left with the firm belief he would fulfil his promises.

THE KILLING of seven persons by a railroad train in Hornellsville, N. Y., Wednesday night, is now said to have been due to the foolhardiness of the driver of the sleigh in which the ill-starred revellers were seated. The occupants saw the train coming and warned the reckless driver not to attempt to cross the track. Persons seated in another sleigh realized the peril of the party following them, and they also called to the driver to stop. He, however, proceeded regardless of the protests of those who had entrusted their lives to his care, and was, it is alleged, the direct cause of probably the saddest accident that ever occurred in Hornellsville. The above is but another sad instance where a man deliberately tempted providence, and it may be safely asserted that the larger percentage of similar catastrophes is the direct result of foolhardiness or carelessness on the part of certain people. In many instances such rash persons escape as it were by the skin of their teeth, but occasionally a terrible accident occurs as a warning to individuals who seem to delight in running as close to danger as possible. The driver of the sleigh in Hornellsville escaped material injury, but his unfortunate passengers were thrown mangled and dying in the snow.

A DISPATCH from Chicago says a sunspot, believed to be one of the largest and best defined ever observed, has been discovered by Professor Cole, astronomer. Mathematical calculations indicate that the spot on the surface of the the sun is one-tenth of its total diameter, or more than eighty thousand miles in its widest part. From the prevailing cold weather we had an idea that the sun was "shaded," and the only surprise is that the spot discovered is not bigger than the professor says it is.

WHILE his jury retired with a case in Columbus, Ohio, yesterday, Judge Dillon took up chancery work and in less than two and a half hours granted nine divorce decrees, an average of one marriage tie broken every fourteen minutes. No wonder the people of the country are rising in protest against the evil of divorce.

A WASHINGTON dispatch states that friends of the administration are trying to induce the presidents of the great railroad systems to accept the Esch-Townsend bill enlarging the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission. This is a clear admission that the administration has less power than have the railroads.

A WASHINGTON dispatch says there is a possibility that every measure which the President desires to be passed at this session of Congress will fail of passage. Now, to avoid this Mr. Roosevelt will have to get after Congress with his big stick and let foreign countries alone for awhile.

THE handsome new Chesapeake and Ohio depot at Charlottesville is to be opened to the public Saturday next. The date of the opening of a new depot for either of the railroads centering in Alexandria has not yet been fixed.

Shot by Guard.

New York, Feb. 3.—One man was shot dead and three others narrowly escaped a like fate in an attempt to rob the Brooklyn navy yard this morning. About four o'clock private Lawrence T. Milton, a marine guard, saw four men making their way toward the wall of the yard. They were carrying a large piece of copper, and he called on them to stop. Instead of doing so they made for the wall and commenced to climb over. Milton then fired four shots at the men, and one of them fell, dying in a few minutes. The others escaped. The copper had been taken from a vessel undergoing repairs. The dead man was later identified as James Levery. He had no home.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

The caucus of republican Representatives, to be held in the hall of the House after adjournment today, will busy itself with the question of railroad rate legislation. Mr. Grosvenor will preside. The republicans of the committee on interstate and foreign commerce have reached an agreement on the Esch-Townsend bill, and this measure will be submitted to the caucus for ratification. Although there is a not inconsiderable element which believes that the questions at issue have not been sufficiently digested to warrant legislation of so radical a character, and that the entire subject should be referred to a commission for further investigation, the prospects are that the caucus will, by an overwhelming majority, declare in favor of the principles of the committee bill. In order that the rate bill may have right of way in the House next week, the committee on rules will be asked to bring in a rule for that purpose. The most important question which the committee on rules will have to consider is that of permitting amendments to the committee bill. If the doors are thrown wide open on the subject, it is feared that the democrats may offer legislation much more radical than that contemplated by the Esch-Townsend bill, and that they may be able to get it through the House with the aid of republican votes. The action of the caucus today will determine that of the committee on rules in this regard.

Dr. L. Scharf, who attained considerable notoriety a few days ago at the meeting of the Senate sub-committee on Indian affairs when Senator Bard accused him of approaching him with an offer of the Catholic support in exchange for Indian schools funds issued a statement today attacking the California Senator and justifying his own actions in the matter.

Father Ketcham, head of the Indian Educational Bureau, of the Catholic Church appeared before the Senate committee on Indian affairs this morning in refutation of the statements made by Senator Bard, Dr. Scharf, etc. He said that there was nothing illegal in the use of Indian trust funds towards the support of the Catholic Indian schools, and in support of that statement, he produced a written opinion given by Attorney General Knox, about a year ago, to the President, stating that those funds could be legally used for that purpose.

Audrew B. Davidson, a Marine, shot and killed himself in a room at the Johnson Hotel, this morning. He left a note addressed to his sister Miss Annia Davidson at Baltimore.

It is now admitted at the State Department that the original protocol with San Domingo providing for the taking over by this country of the customs receipts and the guarantee of the United States of its territorial integrity was without any reference to the Senate or its advice and consent. The department, however, claims that this original draft was rejected by it. At the same time this draft was the one agreed upon by the representatives of the two countries and the rejection went no further than the form of amendment which it is believed has now been accepted by San Domingo although the department claims to be without actual knowledge on the subject. Minister Dawson is the man who, according to department officials, is to be credited with the praise or condemnation of the protocol and should the Senate proceed under the resolution of inquiry introduced some time ago by Senator Morgan and fall heavily upon the executive Mr. Dawson no doubt would become the scapegoat.

The House committee on the judiciary today, by a vote of 8 to 6, authorized a favorable report on the Clayton bill to repeal the United States bankruptcy act. The repeal was favored by 8 democrats and 2 republicans. Six republicans opposed it. Mr. Clayton says the necessity for the repeal is found in the short comings of the law and the numerous complaints made against it.

The Interstate Commerce Commission today formally announced its opinion in the Santa Fe rebate case, holding that the company for the last five years "has wilfully and continuously violated" the provisions of the law which requires carriers to publish and adhere to their tariffs. The greatest interest attaches to this finding because of the connection with the Santa Fe as its vice president and traffic chief of the present Secretary of the Navy Morton during the time of the reported violation of the law by the road. Secretary Morton's name, of course, however, is not mentioned in Mr. Prouty's opinion. The entire matter has been placed in the hands of the Attorney General for such action as he may deem proper under the law.

Bishop Hare's Statement.

Publication of a formal statement by the Right Rev. William H. Hare, Episcopal Missionary Bishop of South Dakota, concerning the appropriation of Indian trust funds for maintenance of sectarian schools, has created considerable comment in view of the explanation which President Roosevelt caused to be issued after Senator Bard, of California, first made his charges before the Senate committee on Indian affairs. Bishop Hare's statement is dated at Sioux Falls, January 5, but was not made public until the President's explanation appeared in print. It is virtually a contradiction of the Executive's assertions, and is, therefore, made public, it is believed, as a reply to the official statements. It is admitted by the President that $98,460 of Indian funds was appropriated to the support of Catholic mission schools, and $4,420 to the support of a Lutheran school, and that no other schools received any money.

News of the Day.

President Roosevelt is reported to have decided to appoint Gen. T. L. Rosser either postmaster at Charlottesville or revenue collector for the Richmond district.

Brooding over the fate of his brothers, who had taken their lives in a similar manner, Christian Fenstermacher, a farmer of Kissel Hill, near Lancaster, Pa., committed suicide Wednesday night by hanging.

The reason for the transfer of Arthur Simmons, the colored doorkeeper at the White House, was that he has offended many people by being too insistent in his inquiries regarding their business with the President.

Three negroes were to have been hanged yesterday in the Allegheny county, Pa., jail yard for the murder of John Kluzor, at Leetsdale, Pa., last May, but Governor Pennypacker has granted respites in each case.

Disinherited by her father, Charles Lockart, of Pittsburg, Pa., who left her only a life interest in $300,000 because she eloped with a poor dentist years ago, Mrs. W. S. Flower, it is learned, is to be one of the richest women in America. A friend of the family announced today that the heirs of the estate, which reaches the total of $150,000,000, will turn over to her $30,000,000 as her share.

Representative Maynard yesterday introduced in the House a bill appropriating $50,000 to erect a monument to the memory of Matthew Fontaine Maury. It is stipulated that the monument shall be erected either at Cape Henry or on Hampton Roads. Matthew Fontaine Maury, known as the "Pathfinder of the Seas," was one of the foremost scientists in the world. He was a noted geographer, and his books and charts have been adopted as standards. He was a native of Virginia.

The latest reports of the casualties in the recent three days' fighting in the vicinity of the Shakhe and Hun rivers say that 14,000 Russians and 7,000 Japanese were killed and wounded. Four regiments of Russian infantry were nearly annihilated. Russians report the finding of a hundred frozen corpses of Japanese wounded who perished from cold near Chenhotin Pass. William Burge, the negro who shot and killed his wife, Daisy Burge, in Washington, on Friday night last, escaped from the Homeopathic Hospital at 2:30 this morning. Burge had been treated at the hospital for wounds received while attempting to shoot his mother-in-law. At 2:30 this morning, on pretext of going to the toilet room, Burge jumped from a window ten feet to the ground, and made his escape, clothed only in his nightshirt. The policeman detailed to watch Burge started in pursuit.

Mrs. F. R. Rowley, one of the women fatally injured by the collision between a train and a sleigh in Hornellsville, N. Y., Wednesday night, before her death made a statement in which she blamed Driver Quick for the disaster. "The ladies begged Quick not to drive on the tracks," she said, "but he paid no attention to them. The train was in plain sight and anybody could see that we could not beat it across, but Quick kept right on, although everybody was screaming to him to stop, and those in the first sleigh were all shouting to him not to cross."

Two children were burned to death, and William McCarrier, their father, sustained burns which will prove fatal in a fire which destroyed his home in Parkersburg, W. Va., last night. McCarrier and his wife were working about the farm, leaving the house in charge of the children. The latter, in playing, started a fire, and when McCarrier returned the house was almost consumed. The older children escaped, but the two infants perished. In attempting to save them the father rushed through the flames, inhaling the fire, and physicians say he cannot recover.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Senator Martin says the outlook for the passage of the omnibus claims bill by this Congress is not bright, and that he is afraid the whole matter will be held up by the House. The House leaders are hostile to the bill because of the large amount that it carries, and it is likely that they will never hear the report of the conference committee. Senator Martin says, however, that he, as a member of that committee, is going to do all in his power to have the Senate amendments go on the bill, and to get the House managers in the conference to agree to them. The bill carries appropriations aggregating some $350,000 for Virginia.

GEN. MILES.

A dispatch from Boston says: For nearly forty years Gen. Nelson A. Miles has been silent regarding criticisms of his action in ordering irons placed on Jefferson Davis.

Today stung by the attacks on himself during the debates on the Hull bill, he vigorously defends himself. He declared the bill to be a piece of low personal politics aimed at him.

"I may ask to be relieved of my detail as acting inspector general," said General Miles, "though I will not say positively that I will leave the service of Massachusetts. I may consent to serve in some other capacity.

"I would suggest that the acts be examined in the case of the shackling of Jefferson Davis at Fortress Monroe, and I would say positively that there was no attempt made to put indignities upon him or humiliate him at that time. What are the facts? He did not come to prison as the President of the Confederacy or commander-in-chief of the Confederate army.

"On May 22, 1865, C. A. Dana, assistant secretary of war, authorized and directed me, in a special order, to place manacles and fetters upon the hands and feet of Jefferson Davis and Clement C. Clay, in order to render their imprisonment more secure.

"Davis in his book admits he intended to attempt to unhorse a man and escape on his mount. Daily notices of plots, which were formed to effect the escape or rescue of Davis, were sent me, with directions to take every precaution to prevent it. Light anklets were placed on Davis. He knocked over a strong man who was helping to do it. The anklets were kept on five days—only while a wooden door was being removed and an iron-grated one substituted.

"The anklets gave Davis no pain, and did not prevent him from walking. They were designed to prevent him from attempting to escape or do himself or anyone else injury. There was not the least desire on the part of anyone to place indignities upon Mr. Davis or in any way humilliate him. Letters to me from Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Clay, thanking me for my courtesies to them, statements under oath from army officers as to my humane and considerate treatment of Mr. Davis and other statements in my possession prove that I did treat Mr. Davis with all the kindness that could be shown him under the circumstances."

Henry Gavin, aged 34, an accountant in the Buffalo office of the New York Central Railroad Company, shot and mortally wounded himself early today, in a lonesome spot on 145th street, near Lenox avenue, New York. Gavin's attempt to take his life was caused, it is said, by the girl to whom he was engaged to be married breaking the engagement.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., Feb. 3.—Gov. Montague today issued a requisition on the Governor of Pennsylvania for Robert Casey, who is wanted in Prince William for attempting to rob the National Bank, of Manassas, in November, 1904. F. C. Rarabough, Virginia's agent left at once for Casey to bring him back for trial.

Discharging Workmen.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 3.—Despite the announcement of the government's protection to all workmen whether they had been in the ranks of the demonstrators or not, the employers are today dismissing all who took a prominent part in the recent agitation. They intend to dismiss all who belong to Father Gopon's organization. This number will equal fully 6,000 men. Three thousand have already been dismissed and are in a destitute condition. The Ministry of the Interior has authorized a statement that the release of Maxim Gorki, the author, was not due to foreign agitation. The Russian government, the statement says, is indifferent to foreign public opinion.

Berlin, Feb. 3.—Nine Russian soldiers from Sevastopol arrived here today en route for America. They were arrested recently for refusing to fire on rebellious sailors at the Sevestopol marine barracks, during a revolt there. The soldiers were imprisoned, but escaped with the aid of local socialists, who bribed the officer on duty. The socialists' accomplices supplied the fugitives with forged passports. The men went to Kiel, and from there crossed the frontier, some of them disguised and the others on their backs in sacks, which their comrades stated was merchandise.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 3.—It is reported that a serious riot is in progress at Lodz, Poland. A strong military patrol fired on a body of strikers who replied with revolvers. The strike is still proceeding.

The fighting ended after six persons had been killed and forty eight others wounded. Another fight occurred at the Keller lace factory. A number of strikers marched to the factory and tried to prevent those employed there from returning to work. A fight ensued. Militarary were summoned to quell the disorder and the troops were ordered to fire on the workmen which they did.

An official list of those who have lost their lives since the disturbances began at Warsaw, includes over three hundred names, besides many who have not been identified.

Disastrous Fires.

New York, Feb. 3.—About 32 families living in the five story tenement, No. 151 Brook avenue, Bronx borough, were routed out of their beds early this morning by a fire which gutted the building. All reached the street in safety, but, being scantily clad, suffered considerably from the severe cold. During the progress of the fire ten firemen were overcome by smoke and were taken to Young's stationery store near by where they were revived.

Gloucester, Mass., Feb. 3.—Fire last night destroyed the two story building, 113-120 Main street, and caused a loss of probably $100,000, partly insured. Two firemen received severe injuries. The building was occupied by the Tappan Clothing Company and the Metropolitan Clothing Company, and on the second floor by the clothing company, and Robert W. Phelps' photograph studio.

Islip, N. Y., Feb 3.—Fire early this morning destroyed Charles Leska's hotel, the Islip Herald office, two stores, and two barber shops, causing a loss of about $50,000.

St. Louis, Feb. 3.—Six of the largest offices and store buildings in East St. Louis were destroyed or badly damaged by fire this morning. The fire orignated, it is said, in a room in the Josephie building, which was occupied as a saloon. Loss over $200,000.

Montreal, Feb. 3.—Fire this morning destroyed Tuckett's cigar factory and the Merchants' Telephone building. The loss is estimated at $100,000. Firemen were frozen to ladders, and had to be chopped away, while others, with cheeks and ears frozen, actually bathed in a pool of water. The temperature was 10° below zero. The telephone and electric light wires were a perpetual menace to the firemen.

Night Attack of Japanese.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 3.—A dispatch from the front reports a severe fight at Shenliang Pass. The Japanese made a night attack on the Russian position there and outflanked the Russian detachment. Afterwards the Japanese encountered a stronger Russian force and were compelled to retire. The Japanese lost about 100 killed and many wounded, while the Russian casualties were fifteen killed and 87 wounded.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 3.—General Kuropatkin reports that a Japanese attack on Chanta Chanteat has been repulsed. It is stated on reliable authority that General Grippenburg, in command of the second Manchurian army with General Kuropatkin, has been asked to resign his command. He has refused and will, therefore be recalled.

Hundred Million Dollar Incorporation.

Fall River, Mass., Feb. 3.—The creation of a $100,000,000 incorporation to include nearly every cotton mill in this city and also bleacheries, print works, and finishing plants to perfect the products of the mills, is the form which general opinion gives to the scheme for consolidation of local cotton mills. The reports are creating a sensation hardly less profound than the strike has produced. The names of some of the city's most substantial capitalists are mentioned in connection with the plan. The object of uniting the mills in one great corporation to be governed by one head is, of course, the institution of economies impossible under the present system.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Feb. 3.—Bullish interest again was in control of the stock market this morning. The position of leader was assumed by Reading at the start, the price advancing 1½ per cent, but later realizations caused a reaction of ¾ per cent. In the industrial list a sharp rally took place in Consolidated Gas, which rose 1¼. The iron and steel stocks were only steady. The market was only moderately active, but offerings were readily absorbed on all concessions.

Will Attempt to Overthrow Governor.

London, Feb. 3.—The opening of parliament on February 14, it is learned will be the beginning of a stiff fight by the opposition to overthrow the government and force its dissolution. All the party leaders have sent urgent whips to the followers calling on them to make every effort to be present at the opening. Joseph Chamberlain is known to be anxious for an early dissolution, believeing that further delay will prove dangerous to his tariff movement. The government is prepared for a hard fight and the early session of parliament are expected to produce some of the stiffest contest in the history of that body.

Strike in France.

Paris, Feb. 3.—The striking electricians of the Edison Company this morning formed a procession and are marching to Saint Denis, to compel the workmen there to quit work. Perfert Heine has consented to receive a delegation of the strikers this afternoon, at which time he will hear their demands. A general meeting of the strikers had been called for tomorrow at which the result of this conference will be reported and the future plans determine on. A later dispatch says the attempt to compel a strike at Saint Denis failed.

Princess Victoria.

London, Feb. 3.—Princess Victoria King Edward's daughter, who is recovering from an operation for appendicitis, this morning maintains her improvement. The official bulletin issued by her physician states that she spent a better night and her condition is in every way satisfactory. King Edward, assured that the danger has passed, will go tomorrow to visit Lord Roseberry.

The Jamestown Exposition.

Washington, Feb. 3.—By a vote of 7 to 4, the House committee on industrial arts and expositions today authorized a favorable report on a bill prepared by subcommittee providing for the holding of an international naval and marine and military exposition at Jamestown, Va., in 1907. The bill carries no appropriation. The Treasury Department will prepare estimates and if this bill passes an appropriation will later be provided. The President is authorized to appoint a national commission of five members. The government is also authorized to participate in the land exhibit at the discretion of the President.

Fifty-Eighth Congress.

Washington, Feb. 3.

SENATE.

"Harken unto the statutes and unto the judgment which I teach you, that ye may possess the land which the Lord giveth you," read the chaplain at the opening of the Senate today. In the prayer following, as a prelude to the session which had been selected for the formal receipt of the answer of Judge Charle Syayne to impeachment charges, he said: "This Senate is sitting as a court before Thee. I ask Thee to bless each man in the discharge of their sacred duties." The Senate wing of the Capitol again took on the appearance of a court today. Chairs and tables again occupied a space within the bar of the Senate chamber. In the marble room, the Senators will resemble for the consideration of disputed points during the impeachment proceedings, thus obviating the necessity of clearing the galleries and closing the doors on such occasions. Promply at 12:30 o'clock the Senate was notified that the legislative session had ended and the court of impeachment was in session. The usual preliminaries were gone through. The public and private galleries were filled by the time ex-Senator Thurston and ex-Senator Higgins, Swayne's counsel, arrived.

An order was agreed to for the future procedure of the court.

When counsel for Judge Swayne was called Mr. Thurston read the answer of the respondent. To charge 1 the respondent denied specifically that his expense claim of $10 a day while outside of his district was false and that he made it, knowing of its falseness. He declared that he believed the law under which he made such claim was intended to allow the maximum of $10 a day as a fixed and definite allowance as a reasonable compensation for such outside duty.

As proof that his construction of the law was proper the answer declared that the records of the auditor of the Treasury Department show that other district judges throughout the United States have made the same expense claim of $10 a day. A general denial was made as to the other charges.

HOUSE.

The House today resumed consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill.

Mr. Watson moved to take the appointment of rural delivery carriers from under the civil service commission.

Mr. Maddox raised a point of order against the amendment on the ground that it was new legislation. Speaking for his proposition, Mr. Watson declared that the rural carriers are building up an organization so powerful that they force a Congressman to vote for increased salaries for them, or they defeat him at the next election. The members applauded when he asked the House to allow Congressmen to appoint the carriers so "that they will be our friends."

Mr. Maddox agreed to withdraw his point if Mr. Watson would further amend his proposition so that Congressmen can designate rural carriers. A declaration of willingness on the part of Mr. Watson to accede to Mr. Maddox's terms, brought forth a renewal of the point of order from Mr. Robinson who goes out of Congress on March 4.

"It's unfortunate," declared Mr. Watson, "that there are some fellows here who wont be in the next Congress."

Mr. Robinson reserved the point, but Mr. Shober raised it again and insisted upon a decision by the chair.

Chairman Lawrence sustained the point of order.

Mr. Padgett attempted to secure the privilege for rural carriers to deliver newspapers and packages on their routes.

The amendment went out on a point of order raised by Mr. Overstreet.

Mr. Cromer offered an amendment giving rural carriers fifteen days annual leave. It went out on a point of order.

The House at 2:25 p. m. passed the postoffice appropriation bill carrying 180,000,000 dollars, after an attempt to strike out the subsidies for the mail carrrying roads from Washington to New Orleans, and from Kansas City, Mo., to Newton, Kansas, had been defeated by a vote of 158 to 92.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Henry Ross, aged 60, hostler at the Franklin House, Glassboro, N. J., was suffocated today in the barness house of the stable attached to the hotel. The contents of the room were destroyed by fire of mysterious origin. There are rumors of incendiarism. It was found that Ross's nose was broken, his face badly scratched and his watch missing. It is believed he was the victim of thieves, who, believing they had killed him, set the building afire to hide evidence of their crime.

A forty-two inch main, supplying Liverpool with water from Lake Vyrnwy, Wales, burst at Eton-Tarporley, near Chester, today and twenty million gallons of water were liberated. The surrounding country was inundated and the roads were changed into deep channels. Enormous damage was done and traffic through the section was rendered impossible. There were no fatalities.

Five degrees below zero is the official reading of the thermometer as given out by the government weather bureau in Pittsburg this morning. Observations taken from almost every locality surrounding Pittsburg and Allegheny give readings of, in several instances, 15 degrees below.

The cold wave has spread throughout the entire northern part of the country. It started on Wednesday with the lowest records of the winter are reached with a whole string of cities from Sioux Falls to New York, where forty hours of zero weather is promised, beginning today.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section increasing cloudiness and continued cold tonight. Saturday snow with rising temperature; light north to northeast winds.

City School Board.

At the monthly meeting of the City School Board held last night there were present: Capt. Bryant, chairman, and Messrs. Stabler, Thomson, Jones, Ramsay Carne, Boothe, Smoot and the Superintendent.

The committee on schoolhouses and furniture reported that the furnaces in Washington building needed attention and the committee was authorized to have the necessary repairs made.

A second permit was granted to Charles Bauny who had been withdrawn from school.

Several bills for repairs and supplies were ordered to be paid.

The Superintendent read a communication from C. S. Clark, of the inaugural committee, inviting not over five boys of the high school to take part with a body of boys from the high schools of the several States, in the inauguration parade in Washington on March 4 next. The Superintendent was authorized to accept the invitation and to make such arrangements as he may deem necessary, involving no expense to the board, however.

A communication was received and read from W. M Kemper, of Bethel Academy, offering a scholarship in that academy to a deserving Alexandria boy properly recommended.

The Superintendent stated that there had been some interruption in the school work by reason of the cold weather; that on one occasion the temperature in one of the rooms had gotten down to 40° and that one day the boys' schools had been closed without his knowledge. He had directed that hereafter the schools should not be closed without his being first notified. He also stated that the only substitute teacher had resigned and that the board was now entirely without such substitutes.

Mr. Stabler asked if there was a system of reports as to the number of days each teacher taught school during the month; he said sometimes the schools were closed without the board knowing it, and he thought the members should be informed on the subject. On his motion the Superintendent was requested to furnish the board, each month, a report on this subject.

Mr. Carne said the statement by the Superintendent that the temperature in one of the school rooms had gotten down to 40° required attention of the board; he thought that stoves should be placed in the rooms in case of necessity. The committee on schoolhouses and furniture was requested to ascertain and report as to whether stoves or additional heating apparatus can be used in Washington building.

The resignation of Miss Pearl Moore, as a substitute teacher, was received and accepted.

A communication from W. B. Evans, of the Armstrong Manual Training School of Washington, offering to send a teacher to this city once or twice a week to give the colored girls instructions in sewing and cooking, was received and referred to the Superintendent to secure further information on the subject.

A communication from the Allison Woman's Christian Temperance Union asking the board to furnish a room in Peabody building in which to open a night school, was received, but the board with regret decided that it was unable to grant the request as it was impossible to provide a suitable room for such a school.

A communication was received from the teachers of Washington and Lee schools in regard to the reduction in their salaries and asking that every white teacher be paid his or her yearly salary as heretofore. The clerk was directed to notify the City Council of the receipt of the communication, stating that the request of the teachers met the approval of the board and asking Council to give the matter favorable consideration.

The Weather and River.

The prevailing cold wave made itself felt again last night. The mercury in most thermometers at 7 o'clock this morning was down to 8°. In others, however, it registered several degrees lower. The river is now effectually blockaded to nearly everything save the large and powerful Norfolk steamers which still forge their way up and down. The Baltimore and river steamers are laid up and as the ice becomes firmer under the prevailing cold weather, it is hard to tell how long the embargo will continue. The steamer Norfolk, due early this morning, did not arrive until about eleven o'clock. She reports that heavy ice extends to the mouth of the river. Three government tugboats went down this morning, and later the steamer Estelle Randall passed down in their track.

A new tugboat is being built at Baltimore by Georgetown men, for towing on the Potomac. The tug will be known as the Edward G. Gunnell, and will be managed by Joseph H. Lee, of 3205 K street, who, with Mr. Gunnell and other capitalists, will own the new boat. It will cost about $15,000 and will be a model of its class It will be equipped with the latest appliances and will be ready for business in April. The company will probably incorporate and take in other boats of the same ownership.

A letter from Comorn, King George county, says: "The fine wharf at Somerset Beach, on the Potomac, in this county, has been destroyed by ice. The wharf was built a few years ago at a cost of several thousand dollars, and was the largest and finest structure of the kind on the Potomac river. Stiff's wharf, several miles above Somerset Beach, was demolished by ice more than a month ago, and now the people of this section have no means of boarding a Potomac steamer with freight or passengers, even when navigation is open, except that passengers may occasionally, in calm weather, reach a passing steamer by means of a rowboat."

There is another movement on foot for the construction of a lighthouse at Ragged Point.

Police Court.

There were no cases for trial in the Police Court this morning. The officers on duty during the night report the city as having been phenomenally quiet, with but few persons on the street at any hour.

The Corporation Commission.

The witnesses who were heard yesterday besides those mentioned in the Gazette of that day were:

John T. Harrison, formerly a car builder and a member of the City Council; F. C. Pratt, of the Bureau of Entomology; George H. Rucker, clerk of the courts of Alexandria county; Frank G. Grimes; W. T. Wilkins, a clerk for the Southern Railway; George Harlow, employed in the Agricultural Department; Miss Ada Thomas, Miss Lucy M. Graves, a stenographer in the National Museum; Miss Fanny Herbert, a clerk in the United States Land Office; Mrs M. R. Evans, employed in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing; Robert B. Marshall, assistant to the auditor of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company; Harry White, a clerk; Miss Lucy G. Watkins, a clerk in the Treasury Department; Frank D. Pollard, a clerk in the Southern Railway office; E. Walton, who lives near Mount Vernon, and is in business in this city.

The commissioners last night were given a public illustration of the inconvenience occasioned by travel on the electric railway. After adjournment yesterday evening they took the 6:05 train for Washington and upon reaching the foot of Fourteenth street the train refused to go further and the officials of the railway quickly came to the rescue by securing vehicles and conveying the commissioners to their hotel.

After the Gazette's report of the proceedings of the State Corporation Commission closed yesterday afternoon it was determined to dispense with the evening session, which was a distinct disappointment to large numbers of commuters who were unable to be present during the day. Scores of them assembled at the court room between 7 and 8 o'clock, only to fin thed doors closed.

During the latter part of the afternoon session numbers of witnesses were put on the stand, and while several of them read from copious notes their testimony was largely along the lines of those who had preceded them.

One incident which was indicative of the feeling of the people occurred when Judge Crump called Mr. A. G. Uhler back to the stand and asked several questions about the service since Mr. Uhler appeared before the commission in Richmond about a year ago, and Mr. Uhler said there had been no improvement and no new rolling stock had been purchased in that time; he would judge the service was even less satisfactory, as the cars must have deteriorated. Judge Crump asked Mr. Uhler if he could suggest a remedy and the reply, "Entire new rolling stock and an expert railroad man to manage the road," caused the spectators to break into applause. Mr. Collins, an employe in the navy yard, was called to the stand to testify as to the crowding of cars before 7 a. m., and the commission then adjourned until 10:30 o'clock this morning.

Before the adjournment until this morning Mr. Boothe stated that the prosecution would put two expert electricians on the stand and that he also wanted to put on six witnesses who would testify that they had been compelled to move from Alexandria on account of the poor service given by the electric road. Mr. Moore stated that he would admit this without consuming the time necessary to hear the witnesses.

During the afternoon session Mr. Moore objected to references to excessive rates and disorderly conduct on the Mount Vernon end of the line, claiming that these matters were not within the scope of this investigation.

When the commission was called to order by Judge Crump shortly before 11 o'clock this morning, J. Hugh Hazelton, an electrical engineer in the employ of the Manhattan Elevated Railway Company, took the stand. Mr. Hazelton testified that he had visited the power house and shops of the Mount Vernon Company, and had made an examination of its rolling stock and road bed. In reply to questions propounded by Mr. Boothe and Mr. Harlow, he said that the power house is well designed and the engines and generators in very good condition; that there is no lack of power and no doubt that it is amply sufficient to heat all of the cars of the company if proper apparatus were installed in the cars. He said the bodies of the cars, and particularly the motors, were in bad shape and showed that they had been racked by long and hard service, and that apparently no effort had been made to keep them in repair. Mr. Hazelton then after stating that he found in the repair shop fifty per cent of the company's motors out of service and undergoing repairs, went into a detailed description of the different styles of motors and other machinery used by electric railways. He said this road should have at least eight new and up-to date motor cars, with four fifty horse power motor in each. He said the present two-motor cars could be repaired and run without trailers. Mr. Hazleton also said that this is the only electric road that he knows of that is located in sections where there is apt to be snow that has practically no provision for clearing snow from the tracks. He said Mr. Colvin had told him that a rotary sweeper had been ordered, but that it was obvious that it should be here now. In regard to the roadway, he said the joints are rough, making riding uncomfortable, but that the rails are in good condition. He said that the whirling noise mentioned by witnesses was caused by worn-out trolley wheels, a matter easily remedied. Mr. Hazleton made a number of recommendations, and stated that their adoption would not involve a very great outlay of money.

Judge Crump asked him the cost of motor cars such as he had mentioned. He replied that the superintendent had told him that they cost $6,700 each.

Counsel for the prosecution asked Mr. Hazleton if their requests were unreasonable, in view of the annual statements of the road that were read yesterday. Mr. Moore objected to this question and was sustained. Mr. Moore then cross-examined Mr. Hazleton, after which Mr. C. F. Thompson, of this city, who is employed in Washington as the electrician for the Postal Telegraph Company, took the stand.

He had made an examination of the power house and equipment, and his evidence was practically the same as that of Mr. Hazleton. He said that out of eleven motor cars owned by the Mount Vernon road on last Wednesday he found six of them laid up for repairs. This left but five cars to represent a schedule between Alexandria and Washington which required seven motor cars at the very lowest. Mr. Thompson said a great deal of the trouble on the electric road had also been due to trying to do a double track business on a single track road. He recommended that eight new motor cars be purchased. After stating that the old heating apparatus is inadequate, and explaining why, in reply to a question he said that he found the overhead equipment of the road in fairly good condition.

Mr. Moore questioned Mr. Thompson and endeavored to show that he was not competent to testify as to electric railway service, but without appreciable results. Mr. Thompson said that the simple fact that six out of eleven motors being out of service was sufficient evidence that something was radically wrong with the road.

Mr. Hazleton was recalled and stated that a road in Chicago had recently discarded one hundred and sixty motors that were only about twelve years of age; he said these motors were of the same pattern as some of those owned by the Mount Vernon Road; he further stated that the life of a motor depends largely upon the service required of it, and the care expended upon it.

Mr. Netherland was recalled, and asked what efforts had been put forth by the Commuters' Association to secure better service by amicable means. He then reviewed the circumstances leading up to the last appeal to the Commissioners, and the organization of the Commuters' Association. He said the Commissioners issued an order which the company had obeyed in letter, but not in spirit. They ran two trailers on certain trains as far as Arlington Junction, where the second trailer was cut off, and the passengers compelled to crowd into the two forward cars. This was objected to, and the third car was run to the south end of the Long bridge, where a motor car and crew was maintained several hours each day for the purpose of taking off this third car. This, he said, caused great inconvenience, and usually made a delay of about ten minutes. Eventually, he said, the company dropped back to the old order of things, and the Commissions' instructions were apparently forgotten. He had written two temperate and courteously worded letters to President King, but he had received no reply. The letters, he said, were written in a spirit of friendship, and were merely for the purpose of inducing Mr. King to personally investigate conditions with which he did not believe Mr. King was familiar. Mr. Netherland said that his several conferences with Mr. Colvin were amicable, and that he had been treated with the utmost courtesy. Mr. Colvin had promised to do everything that was asked, but the promises were not kept, or at least only partially.

Mr. King then took the stand to make his statement. He said the testimony brought out showed that the Mt. Vernon road is superior to the street railways of Philadelphia. He said he did not admit the truth of all of the crimes charged against the Mount Vernon road and denied that the management had been indifferent to the needs of the people of Alexandria. He said that when he took the management of the road two and a half years ago, neither the stock nor bondholders had received anything, and that it was impossible to get money for improvements. In about a year, he said, the company paid a small dividend, as it was necessary to show that the property could earn money before it was possible to borrow money for betterments. Mr. King said he could name a number of roads where one-half of the rolling stock has been out of condition during the past two months on account of the weather. He stated that the building of approaches to the new Long bridge, the purchase of several new motors, and the snow sweeper, and the double tracking of the road from Alexandria to Four-mile run, and from Arlington Junction to their terminal in Washington, would involve an outlay of about $200,000. This, he said, was not a small sum, or one easily raised, but that he had just completed negotiations for more than that amount, and that the money would be available on March 1. Mr. King said the people of Alexandria are merely asking the electric road to do what the company proposes to do. He said the new cars would be in service within six months, and that some of the old motor equipment would be discarded for new. He said the witnesses seemed to think that this road is about the same as others, and do not take into consideration the fact that part of it is overhead trolley and a part underground, and that there is a bridge to cross that necessarily causes some delay. He said an electric railway that is not overcrowded during certain rush hours would be but a poor paying investment. Mr. King denied that the cars of the Mount Vernon road are in a dangerous condition and said that there were fewer accidents in 1904 than in any previous year. He then asked the Commission to allow the company to carry out its plans which will satisfy Alexandrians "if," he said, "they can be satisfied."

In reply to questions by counsel Mr. King said his road would soon have sixteen first class motor equipments, and that the new cars would be as fine as money can buy. In regard to Mr. Netherland's letters, Mr. King said that it did not seem wise in his judgment to answer them, as the matter was then in the hands of the State Corporation Commission. In regard to criticisms of the management of the road, he said this would be found on any road where an association of commuters concentrates its attention on every so-called abuse. He claimed that his road has spent as much money as any other road of its size for cleaning cars and that their unclean condition was due largely to the tobacco habit. Mr. King was questioned at some length by Mr. Harlow, but nothing of importance was brought out. Mr. King said that when he took the management of the Mount Vernon road he believed in spite of the discouraging statements of many people, that Alexandria had a future, and that he is still of the same opinion.

Mr Moore said that Mr. Harlow had intimated that Mr. King did not keep in touch with the affairs of the road; he said that this not so, as Mr. King is constantly in communication with the office of the company, and further the Pennsylvania Railroad Company exercises a certain amount of supervision over the operations of the electric road.

Mr. Boothe then reviewed briefly the evidence, and said that the railroad company had practically plead guilty to the charges preferred by the people. He closed with an appeal to the Commission to enter an order requiring the electric railway company to make the improvements asked for, stating that if the officers of the company are sincere in their promises, they could not object to such an order. He said that the people of Alexandria preferred to have the promises of the company backed up by the order of the Commission.

Mr. Moore followed Mr. Boothe in a brief argument on behalf of the company, in which he took issue with Mr. Boothe in some of his statements.

Mr. Moore opposed the issuing of an order compelling the company to make the improvements asked for and said the company would do so anyway but objected to the order hanging over it.

Mr. Moore was followed by Mr. Leo Harlow, who urged the commissioners to enter the order compelling the company to make the improvements asked for and said "the people of Alexandria are tired of the suave, serene and smiling Mr. Colvin, who promises everything and does nothing, and also of the elusive Mr. King, the president of the company." The commissioners then adjourned the case without rendering a decision.

It is the general belief that the commissioners in a short time will render a decision covering the entire matter.

At 3:15 this evening the commissioners met again and took up the matter of the demand for the running of steam trains.

Col. F. L. Smith appeared for the Washington-Southern road and in a brief argument opposed the demand.

Maj. Myers made practically the same statement he made at the Business Men's League rooms recently and said at the present time his company could not run local trains into Washington, but that when the four tracks were completed and the new depot built in Washington the local trains would be run again as an experiment at least. Mr. Duke had taken the stand when this report closed.

Personal.

It is reported that Mr. James R. Caton will again become the counsel for the Washington, Alexandria and Mt. Vernon Railway Company for Alexandria city and county after the reorganization has been effected.

Miss Pauline Nicol is visiting the Misses Marye.

Rev. J. A. Wray, formerly pastor of the Baptist Church in this city, left this morning for Wake Forest, N. C., where he will visit his family. He will later proceed to Tampa, Fla., from which point he will sail with his mother for Havana.

Miss Rebecca C. Powell is spending the winter at the Walfra, in Washington.

Interesting Lecture.

Miss Jeannette Miriam Goldberg, field lecturer and grand secretary of the Jewish Council of Women, delivered an interesting lecture in the synagogue on north Washington street last night. One of the objects of the council is the stimulation of the study of Jewish history and literature among Israelites and the imparting of the same to their children. Miss Goldberg was listened to with close attention by all present, and her lecture was justly esteemed. Mrs. Kate W. Barrett, who has long been a prominent worker in women's organizations, was present and made a brief but practical address. After the lecture Miss Goldberg was handsomely entertained at the Hotel Rammel.

Seriously Injured.

Mrs. R. W. Gaillard, who slipped and fell on the ice on Wolfe street Wednesday evening, received more serious injuries than was at first supposed. Upon closer examination it was discovered that her hip was broken by the fall. It is a singular fact that Mrs. Boyce, mother of Mrs. Gaillard and who lives with her daughter, has for some time been an invalid, the result of a similar accident by which she also had her hip broken. The latter is a daughter of the late Representative Boyce of South Carolina, who was one of the Confederate Congressmen from the Palmetto State at the beginning of the war between the States.

Auction Sales Tomorrow.

Mr. Samuel H. Lunt, auctioneer, will offer for sale at noon tomorrow in front of the Royal street entrance to the City Hall, a parcel of land in the center of the old Mount Vernon road, in Fairfax county, containing 5,33 acres.

Capt. R. F. Knox will offer for sale at the same time and place a lot of ground on the east side of Alfred street, between Prince and Duke.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The Senate spent much of yesterday in discussing the policy of distributing ordinary farm and garden seeds by the Agricultural Department. The controversy arose in connection with the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill and from an attack upon the seed distribution custom made by Mr. Lodge. He and those who stood with him contended that the seeds sent out were of the common varieties to be bought of dealers everwhere, and urged that only rare varieties should be supplied free to the people of the country. Their opponents contended that much good was accomplished by the work of the department. The Senators participating in the debate were Proctor, Lodge, Hale, Platt, of Connecticut; Spooner, Hansbrough, McCumber, Teller, Patterson, Bailey, Pettus, Berry, Clay, and Latimer. The bill was not completed.

The Senate met at noon today. At 1 o'clock there was a session of the court of impeachment to receive Judge Swayne's answer.

The postoffice appropriation bill was still under consideration when the House adjourned yesterday.

Mr. Baker denounced certain members of his party for having foisted Judge Parker upon them as their candidate for President, saying that his candidacy had been initiated and manipulated by monopolists.

Dental From Mr Alderman.

President Alderman, of the University of Virginia, yesterday denied saying at the Southern Society banquet at New York, as has been reported, that men in public life from the South lacked trained brains. His speech, he said, was simply a plea for the training of our youths for directive power and leadership, not only in public life, but in all forms of activity. As an incident of his speech, he made the point that Southern leadership, taken on the whole, lacked the training it needed for handling the problems of today. Southern leaders were men of character, of incorruptible honesty, of devotion and brains; they had courage and resolution; their lack was scientific training for thorough and exact treatment of great problems. He did not mean that there were not exceptions. Their lack of training was not their fault, but their lack of opportunity. It is a question of conditions, not of individuals.

Senator Bailey, in a recent letter to Mr. Thomas Nelson Page, withdrew his name from the committee to raise funds for the university, giving as his reason the alleged attack by President Alderman upon Southern Senators and Representatives.

Alexandria Gazette.

FRIDAY EVENING, FEB. 3, 1905.

Hicks for February.

In February there will be five storm periods. The first will strike the East about February 3d or 5th; the second about the 9th or 10th. The third will be East February 15th or 17th, the fourth on the 19th to 21st, and the fifth on the 26th to 28th.

Of these the fourth, he declares, will be the most violent, and will comprise two storms. One of these will originate on the Gulf, and he warns all concerned to take due notice. Many coasts will be exposed to the gales and violent tidal waves will abound. Continuing he says:

"The barometer will drop to low readings over most parts of the country, and general rain and snow will visit the country within sixty hours of 8 p. m. on the 19th.

"High gales and a sweeping blizzard out of and over the Northwest should be counted imminent probabilities, all followed by high barometer and far reaching cold wave."

Assaulted by a Negro.

Mrs. Hales, a widow, of Cumberland county, N. C., while on a lonely road, four miles from Fayetteville yesterday afternoon, accompanied by her little son, was criminally assaulted by a young negro, Walter Partridge, eighteen years old. The evidence shows that the negro beat Mrs. Hales on the head, choked her, and cut her neck with scissors. The negro was soon captured and confessed his crime. Indignation at Fayetteville is intense, although there is little danger of lynching. The chairman of the Cumberland county board of commissioners and Col. C. W. Bradfoot, dean of the Fayetteville bar, have joined in a telegram to State Senator Sinclair asking him to rush a bill through the legislature at Raleigh conferring on the civil term of the Superior Court, which convenes next week, jurisdiction to try the negro. He is a discharged employe of the silk mill at Fayetteville.

Want to Marry Hoch.

Johann Adolph Hoch, alias Henry Bartels, the modern Bluebeard, who has had 31 wives, according to the police, was arraigned for the second time in the Jefferson Market Court New York, yesterday and was again remanded to the custody of the police and locked up at police headquarters. He will be again arraigned on Saturday, when requisition papers and an affidavit setting forth his indictment for bigamy in Chicago will be produced. Since his arrest he has received letters from women in various parts of the country, the majority of them containing offers of marriage. One from New Haven, signed "Agnes Burnett," was as follows: "Dear Sir: I have heard of your case and I believe you innocent. If you succeed in clearing yourself of your present difficulty I should be very glad to correspond with you." Other letters contain actual proposals of marriage.

A Cold January.

The mean tempature of January in this section was thirty degrees above zero. The mean for the past thirty-five years was thirty-three degrees. The coldest day was the 31st, when the mercury registered zero. The warmest was the 1st, when the mercury was at sixty-five. The greatest daily range was twenty-eight degrees, on the 3d; the least was six, on the 11th. The total precipitation was 3.59 inches. The snowfall amounted to 13.5 inches, of which three inches remained on the ground at the end of the month. There were eight clear days, nine partly cloudy, fourteen cloudy and twelve on which an inch or more of precipitation occurred.

A Touching Story

is the saying from death of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyler, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious Throat Trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; 50c and $1.00 guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Unequalled for Constipation.

Mr. A. R. Kane, a prominent druggist of Baxter Springs, Kansas, says: "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are, in my judgment, the most superior preparation of anything in use today for constipation. They are sure in action and with no tendency to nauseate or gripe. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflammed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

No More Stomach Troubles.

All stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Erskine, of Allenville, Mich., says, "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold by all druggists.
